We take our camera to the African Festival, which was held at the Jagiellonian University on 25-26 May 2007. The main aim of the Festival was to turn students’ attention to African cultural and social events. It was to promote integration between African and Polish students as well as friendship between Poland and Africa. The African Festival was organised by the Society for African Affairs at the Jagiellonian University. It is a self-governing student fraternity that focuses on promoting cultural and social integration between Poland and Africa. The Society functions under the auspices of the Council for Academic Societies of the Jagiellonian University. Its honorary patron is Dr. A. Sesay (Doctor of Sociology from Sierra Leone) and the guardian is Professor Maria Flis (Dean of the Faculty of Philosophy UJ).

Special guests of the Festival were Ambassador of Angola in Warsaw Her Excellency Mrs. Lizeth Nawanga and Polish Ambassador to Zimbabwe Jan Wielirski as well as Mr Willie van der Westhuzen, charge d’affaires of the Republic of South Africa in Poland.

The African Festival was opened by Prof. Karol Musioł, Rector of the Jagiellonian University. Then J. Wielirski shared what he saw in Africa during his 17 years of diplomatic service in Kenya, Liberia, Namibia, Nigeria and Zimbabwe. He emphasized the patience and optimism of the Africans and that besides tourist attractions in Africa there are also many cultural events, e.g. film and jazz festivals.

Mr Errol Muzawazi, student of law and President of the Society for African Affairs at the JU, pointed to the lack of organisation and vision of leadership as well as the lack of commitment to duties and obligations. Africa has human resources but needs a new generation of visionary leadership.

Three students from Cameroon presented African dance. Mr. Van der Westhuzen presented the preparation for World Football Championship 2010 in South Africa.

The next event of the African Festival called ‘Afro Party’ was held in the evening in the club of the JU Students’ Residence ‘Nawojka.’
