New buildings of the Faculty of Mathematics and Computer Science

On 14th October 2008 the Faculty of Mathematics and Computer Science received its new facilities on the Third University Campus. The solemn opening of the new building was held on the Day of National Education in Poland. The ribbon was cut by the JU authorities, as well as the architect and the constructor of the building.

The new building has two large lecture halls (one for 240 seats and the other for 190 seats), two smaller lecture halls, 12 seminar rooms (for 30 people each), computer laboratories, a library and a buffet. In total, the area is 71,048 cubic metres. It has a capacity of 1,300 students and 320 didactic and administrative staff.
